Boy Went on an Outing.

Mrs. Esther M. Gregory, living at 707 6th street northeast, called on the police last night and asked them to find her son, Frederick W. Gregory. The boy is not yet six years old, and his mother thought he had been taken away by his father, Samuel B. Gregory, a clerk in the Agricultural Department, from whom she is separated.

It is stated that by direction of the court the father is permitted to visit the boy each evening. He called to see him last night and took him home. Because of a delay in returning home the lad's mother became excited, fearing he would be returned to her. The boy came back with the boy about 9 o'clock.

HEARING THE ARGUMENTS

PROCEEDINGS AGAINST SECRETARY GAGE AND BOARD OF EXPERTS.

Testing Legality of Secretary's Action in Fixing Standard of Tea for Importation.

Justice Bradley of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia was engaged today hearing arguments in connection with the proceedings instituted the 20th of last month by the United States of America on the relation of George Hamilton, George C. Chiswell & Co., Moulrighs Heiman & Co., Russell & Co., Averill & Co. and William J. Gordon, all dealers in tea, of New York City, for a writ of certiorari to be directed against the Secretary of the Treasury and the board of tea experts appointed by the Secretary.

The object of the suit is to test the legality of the action of the Secretary of the Treasury in fixing certain standards of tea for importation into the United States. As stated, the petition is for a writ of certiorari to determine whether the Secretary of the Treasury has lawfully determined the standards of tea for importation, and if not, to compel him to do so.

The petitioners claim that the standards of tea fixed by the Secretary of the Treasury are arbitrary and capricious, and that they are not in accordance with the law. They claim that the standards are not in accordance with the law, and that they are not in accordance with the law.

LAFAYETTE STOCK COMPANY'S

FAYETTE STOCK COMPANY'S. The long season of the Lafayette Stock Company will end on Saturday evening when Edwin Arden, Minnie Radcliffe and the other players who have become popular during the spring and summer season at this theater will say farewell to Washington for the present.

"Young Mrs. Winthrop," the current bill, will be given as usual Saturday night, and the company will be replaced by a new one. The play may be done by Mr. Arden and Miss Radcliffe on that occasion only.

"A MILK WHITE FLAG."—Hoyt's merry and musical military comedy, "A Milk White Flag," is announced for Chase's Theater. The play is a one-act play in clever characters, and Mr. Hoyt provided each with some of the keenest and best lines which ever emanated from his pen. The situations, the personnel and the locale are exceptionally interesting, and together with the mock military air pervading the piece, are all factors in its success, and are all well worth the playgoer's attention.

The interpretation to be given at Chase's will be along the same enjoyable lines as "A Milk White Flag," and the play will be a success. The play will be a success. The play will be a success.

SOLDIER AT REST.

Funeral Services Over Remains of

Funeral services were held yesterday at St. Aloysius Church over the remains of Sgt. Lawrence Connell, formerly a resident of this city and veteran of the Spanish-American war and Philippine insurrection.

Young Connell served with distinction in the 4th Immunes in Cuba during the Spanish-American war, and was honorably discharged. In June, 1899, he re-enlisted in the 7th Volunteer Regiment, leaving this city July 10, 1899, for the Philippines. During this service he received the promotion to sergeant, and was discharged with his regiment from the service at San Francisco June 2.

He left San Francisco immediately for home, having at that time about $500 in pocket money, and nothing further was heard of him until June 23, when his body was found near Carroll City, Col. It is not known how he came to his death, but his body had evidently been run over by a railroad train. The remains were taken to the city and buried in the city.

Rev. Father Connelley, president of Gonzaga College, conducted the services. The interment was made at Mount Olivet. The remains were taken to the city and buried in the city.
